

JUNETEENTH

EDUCATE, MOTIVATE, CELEBRATE, our African American History

Books:

On Juneteenth

Annette Gordon-Reed (Author)

All Different Now: Juneteenth, the First Day of Freedom

Book by Angela Johnson

While Justice Sleeps: A Novel

Stacey Abrams (Author)

A Black Woman's Journey from Cotton Picking to College Professor:

Lessons about Race, Class, and Gender in America Book by Menah Pratt-Clarke

A Netflix Documentary Series: HIGH ON THE HOG: How African American Cuisine TRANSFORMAED AMERICA

Books Children:

I Am Proud of My Ancestors They Overcame

Juneteenth for Mazie

Book by Floyd Cooper

Juneteenth: A Celebration of Freedom

Charles A. Taylor

Baby, Young, Gifted, and Black: With a Mirror!

Jamia Wilson (Author) Andrea Pippins (Illustrator)

One Crazy Summer

P.S. Be Eleven

Gone Crazy in Alabama

A three book series where three sisters travel in 1968

Rita Williams-Garcia (Author)

YouTube: What is Juneteenth and Why Do We Celebrate? / BrainPOP

The McLean County Historical Society and the Bloomington/Normal Black History Project (BNBHP) in partnership with The City of Bloomington's Human Relations Commission – Juneteenth 2021